

Adrian Moya

701 SW 62nd Blvd. Apt. P116
Gainesville, Florida, 32607

786-566-2655
adrian@bcs-fl.com

Objective

Currently majoring in computer science at the University of Florida. Planning to pursue career in programming and application design.

Education

University of Florida
August 2014 – Present (Major: Computer Science)

The Honors College at Miami-Dade College
August 2012 – May 2014 (Major: Film Production, Computer Science)

Belen Jesuit Preparatory School– Miami, Florida
August 2005 – March 2012

Work Experience

Business Computer Systems, April 2011 - Present

- Assistant (Full-time during summer, part-time rest of year), in charge of inventory, organization, computer repair and software debugging.

Achievements/Honors

- Honorable Mention - Cuban Infrastructure Challenge
- Short story published in Miami Herald, 2014
- University of Florida Dean's List Recipient, 2014
- Associates of Arts in Computer Science from Miami-Dade College
- Graduated with Highest Honors from Miami-Dade College
- MDC Dean's List Recipient, 2012, 2013
- Graduated Magna Cum Laude, 2012
- Hispanic Merit Scholar- Semi-Finalist, 2012

Activities

- Cuban Infrastructure Challenge group member, 2014-2015
- Volunteer and Team Organizer at JDRF Walk to Cure Diabetes, 2006-Present
- MDC Film Society co-founder and Vice-President, 2012-2014
- MDC Investment Club Analyst, 2012-2014
- Volunteer Tutor at San Juan Bosco afterschool center, 2010-2012
- Volunteer at Miami Rescue Mission, 2009-2011

Skills

- Proficient in multiple programming languages including Java, C++, and ProvideX
- Proficient and experienced in computer and smartphone repair and software usage
- Fluent in Spanish and English
- Experienced in usage of multiple cameras (still and video)
- Experienced in mechanical repair